DETAILED ACTION

Election/Restrictions

1. Applicant's election without traverse of species A in the reply filed on 4/24/06 is acknowledged.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

2. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

3. Claims 1, 2, 5, and 7 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Anderson (US 5,733,059 A).

Anderson discloses a harvester cutting implement comprising a connection including a vertical cylindrical hinge 18 pivotable about a vertical axis 36, and a safety device 20 (or friction lack) for allowing said hinge to pivot when an obstacle is in the path of the implement, as shown in figures 1-7.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

4. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

5. Claim 3 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Anderson, as applied to claim 2 above, and further in view of Maier et al. (US 3,543,489 A).

Anderson does not disclose a shear pin that gives under a specific load. Maier et al. does disclose a shear pin 13 that gives way under a specific load, as shown in figures 1 and 3. It would have been obvious to one having ordinary skill in the art at the time of the invention to have provided the harvesting implement connection of Anderson with the shear pin of Maier et al. in order to provide a mechanical device that gives way under a certain load for safety when an obstacle is encountered.

Allowable Subject Matter

6. Claims 4 and 6 are objected to as being dependent upon a rejected base claim, but would be allowable if rewritten in independent form including all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims.
